Our Lady of Mount Carmel

She is the patron saint of the Carmelite order. Pious legend tells how in the 13th century, the Carmelite, St. Simon Stock, asked Mary to grant a special privilege to his order. And so it happened that on a certain day, the Blessed Virgin appeared to him with a brown scapular in her hand saying, "Here is the privilege I grant to you and to all children of Carmel. Whoever dies clothed in this habit shall be saved."

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is July 16th and it commemorates 18 various scapular devotions, including the brown scapular.
