A SUMMERTIME PRAYER

It's finally summer Lord! Let the warmth, the rest, the joy, the light of summer days seep deep into my heart and bless me with your presence.

Give me some lazy summer days to restore my faith and my joy. Come summer in my heart Lord and dwell there as though time would never end.

Help me put the brakes on this merry-go-round-go-nowhere rush of life. Help me to find a peaceful place where, finally, I can hear you speaking to my heart.

Slow me down and let this season's doldrums lull, calm and call me to a place of prayer, meeting you again- like old friends reuniting on a beautiful summer's day.

And, if I have a chance to get away, Lord, help me pack just what I need and leave all else behind. Help me leave my work at work and leave at home the complicated clutter of my life. Help me keep things just as simple as I can, making room for you and me to spend some time together.

And if I find myself tied down by burdens, cares and worries, then clear a place and make a time each day for me to stop and rest with you, Lord.

Send the Spirit of your peace to tame and quiet any turmoil in my mind and heart.

Let me waste no precious summer time, time that's mine for peace and rest and for refreshing and restoring my body, mind and soul. Amen.
